Revised by UB Student Advising Services:
September 2014
Accessibility Resources
25 Capen Hall • 716.645.2608 • http://www.buffalo.edu/accessibility
Accessibility Resources coordinates services and accommodations to ensure accessibility of all UB programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. The office is a resource for information and advocacy toward individuals’ full participation in all aspects of campus life. Students, faculty, staff, and campus visitors with disabilities should contact Accessibility Resources to request reasonable accommodations to participate in any program, service, or activity of the university. The office sponsors the Workforce Recruitment Program for College Students with Disabilities, which places college students with disabilities in internships and part or full-time positions in the federal government and private sector. For more information on the Workforce Recruitment Program, visit http://www.dol.gov/odep/wrp/.

Career Services
259 Capen Hall • 716.645.2231 • http://www.ub-careers.buffalo.edu
Career Services is a comprehensive career development center and provides extensive services to undergraduate and graduate students across all academic disciplines, as well as lifetime resources to alumni. They educate students in the areas of self-assessment, career exploration, and job search techniques with the goal of helping students achieve lifelong career satisfaction and success.

Center for Assistive Technology (CAT)
3108 Main St. • 716.836.1168 • http://www.cat.buffalo.edu
A part of UB’s School of Public Health and Health Professions, CAT’s focus is to increase knowledge about assistive devices for persons with functional impairments. The Center’s work extends to research and commercialization, public education, client assessment and training and information dissemination about advanced technologies and assistive devices. CAT involves faculty from architecture and planning, communicative disorders and sciences, counseling and educational psychology, geriatric medicine, law, mechanical, electrical, and industrial engineering, nursing, rehabilitation sciences, rehabilitation medicine, and special education.

Horizon Health Services
http://www.horizon-health.org/
Horizon Health Services is a not-for-profit corporation that provides an array of comprehensive services to assist individuals with mental health and/or substance abuse issues to make choices that improve their quality of life and achieve their personal recovery goals. They provide fully integrated behavioral health, medical and vocational rehabilitation services in community-based settings.

Learning Disabilities Association of Western New York (LDA)
http://www.ldaofwny.org
LDA enhances the quality of life for children and adults with learning disabilities. They provide advocacy, services and information about Learning Disabilities and related disorders; referrals to tutors and community resources; and assistance with education, employment, housing, and financial issues.

Vocational and Educational Services for Individuals with Disabilities (VESID)
http://www.acces.nysed.gov/vr/
VESID promotes educational equity and excellence for students with disabilities while ensuring that they receive the rights and protection to which they are entitled. VESID provides vocational rehabilitation and independent living services to enable individuals to work and live independent, self-directed lives.

WNY Collegiate Consortium of Disability Advocates (CCDA)
http://www.ccdanet.org
CCDA is a group of professionals in postsecondary and secondary education and community and government agencies who work with students with disabilities. The group addresses the needs of students with disabilities on WNY college campuses and helps them transition from high school to college.
The mission of Wellness Education Services (WES) is to improve the health of students, by reducing risk for injury and illness, increasing academic success and personal satisfaction, and working toward the genuine health of the whole campus community. Their services include: peer education internships, late-night activities, classroom lectures, campus living programs, Life and Learning Workshops, outdoor adventures, a health and wellness resource suite located in the Student Union, and media campaigns. The main focus areas of their campus health promotion efforts include: alcohol and other drugs, nutrition and physical activity, rape, sexual assault and violence prevention, sexual health, stress management, and tobacco control.

COMMUNITY RESOURCES

Center for Disability Rights (CDR)
http://www.cdrnys.org
CDR is a not-for-profit, community-based advocacy and service organization for people with all types of disabilities. Since 1998, CDR has been recognized as an Independent Living Center by the National Council on Independent Living, making it part of a national network that provides non-residential and non-medical services. CDR uses a peer model where people with disabilities show other people with disabilities how to live independently and advocate for themselves.

Crisis Services, Inc.
http://www.crisisservices.org/content
Crisis Services is dedicated to promoting the health, safety, and well being of the community through prevention, education, immediate intervention, and access to community-wide resources 24 hours a day.

Counseling Services
120 Richmond Quad • 716.645.2720 • http://wellness.buffalo.edu/ccenter
A part of UB’s Student Wellness Team, Counseling Services offers individual, group and couples counseling free to all UB students. Students often come for help with such concerns as depression, anxiety, eating disorders, substance abuse, sexual assault or abuse, sexual identity, relationship conflicts, grief or loss, academic stress, and family issues. Counseling Services can also provide referrals when situations require off-campus or longer-term therapy. A variety of workshops, self-help tools, and psychiatric services are also available. All services are confidential (with a few exceptions dictated by law).

Intercultural and Diversity Center (IDC)
240 Student Union • 716.645.2434 • http://www.ub-diversity.buffalo.edu
The IDC provides cultural enrichment and leadership experiences to raise the awareness of issues of diversity. The Center helps UB maintain a climate that celebrates difference, and therefore improves the quality of life for UB students. The Center is a comfortable location for educational programs as well as services that foster academic and personal growth.

Office of Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI)
406 Capen Hall • 716.645.2266 • http://www.buffalo.edu/equity.html
EDI’s primary responsibility is to ensure UB’s compliance with policies covering discrimination, harassment, accommodations, equal opportunity and child protection. EDI is the University’s official liaison to the various government monitoring and enforcement agencies, the State Attorney General’s Office and to SUNY Counsel.

Psychological Services Center (PSC)
168 Park Hall • 716.645.3697
http://psychology.buffalo.edu/?s=psychological+services+center
UB’s Department of Psychology operates the PSC as a service to UB students and staff, as well as the surrounding community. The PSC provides a broad array of psychological services, including counseling and therapy for individuals, couples, families, and groups, psychological assessment and testing, psychoeducational workshops, and consultation.
